

Personal Property Security Law: Local and Global Perspectives

20 and 21 February 2013, Adelaide Festival
Centre

Wednesday 20 February 2013

Day 1

8.30 Registration

9 a.m. Opening welcome Hon. John Rau MP, Deputy Premier and Attorney-General of South Australia

Session 1

9.15 -10 Keynote Address: Professor Sir Roy Goode QC, CBE- Security Interests in Mobile Equipment, Lessons in Lawmaking from the Cape Town Convention

Session 2

Chair: Mary Hiscock, Emeritus Professor, Bond University

10a.m What makes a Good Security Law: An English Perspective- Richard Calnan, Partner, Norton Rose

10.30-11 Morning tea

11 a.m The Prospects of Continental Europe adopting a UCC-type Secured Transactions System- Professor Tibor Tajti, Central European University, Budapest

11.30 Secured Transactions Reform in the Pacific Islands- Terry Reid, Consultant to Asian Development Bank

12 noon 10 years of PPSA in NZ, Lessons and Trends- Michael Arthur, Chapman Tripp Wellington

12.30 Panel Discussion: International Secured Transactions: The Prospects for Convergence?

Chair: Professor John Stumbles, University of Sydney

Panel: Sir Roy Goode, Richard Calnan, Terry Reid, Patrick Quirk, Tibor Tajti

1-2 Lunch

Session 3:

2p.m Analysing the New Lexicon -Professor Sheelagh McCracken, Professor of Finance Law, University of Sydney

2.30 p.m Leases and bailment under Australia's PPSA- Craig Wappett, Partner, Johnson Winter Slattery

3-3.20 Afternoon tea

Session 4 (Parallel sessions):3.20-4.50 pm

Financial property, financing and payments (1.5 hours)

Chair: Kerryn Smith, National Australia Bank

Professor Patrick Quirk, Ave Maria Law School, Florida- Deposit Accounts and Cash Collateral

Professor Tony Duggan, University of Toronto and Professorial Fellow, University of Melbourne - Chattel Paper

David Turner, Barrister, Senior Fellow, Monash University- Debtor-induced payments

Insolvency (1.5 hours)- Proudly sponsored by Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia (IPA)

Chair: Michael Murray, Legal Director, IPA

Morgan Kelly, Ferrier Hodgson- PPSA in insolvency practice

Lionel Meehan, Ashurst- Issues for Lenders and IPs in Dealing with Purchase Money Security Interests

Associate Professor David Brown, Adelaide Law School- Receivers, Controllers and PPSA

Close Day 1 : 4.50 pm

Conference Dinner at National Wine Centre, 7.15-10pm

Day 2 Thursday 21st February

8.45 a.m

Session 1

8.45 The Register's First Year- Andrew Sellars, Acting Registrar, PPS Register, and Principal Legal Officer, Insolvency and Trustee Service Australia

9.15 How the Register works and why you need to take care- Martin James and Helena Busljeta, King & Wood Mallesons

9.45 Dealings in Collateral under the PPSA: in search of a harmonious whole- Bruce Whittaker, Ashurst

10.15-10.45 Morning tea

Session 2

10.45 Financing Transactions Structured as Sales- Professor Mike Gedye, University of Auckland

11.15 Supplementing PPSA Priorities: The Use and Abuse of Common Law and Equitable Principles Professor Rod Wood, University of Alberta

11.45 Trusts and the PPSA: An Awkward Relationship- Nuncio D'Angelo, Norton Rose

Lunch 12.15-1 p.m

Session 3

1p.m Commingling - Diccon Loxton and Andrew Boxall, Allens Linklaters

1.30 p.m Good faith and the exercise of rights under the PPSA- Linda Widdup, Lecturer, Curtin University, Perth

Session 4

2 p.m Panel discussion: Reviewing the Australian PPSA:

Chair: Professor Greg Tolhurst , University of Sydney

Panellists: Richard Glenn, Head of Business Law Division, Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department, Professor Tony Duggan, Craig Wappett, Diccon Loxton

3 p.m Conference closing remarks

ADELAIDE
LAW SCHOOL

THE UNIVERSITY of ADELAIDE

